

Objectives

The GDAB promotes open and sustainable dialog between the people of Germany and the Arab World based on tolerance, mutual respect, and friendship through...

... student exchange programs

(Short-term visits for high-school students)

... exchange programs for multipliers

(Short-term excursions for e.g. teachers, professors and other educational personnel)

... out-of-school training

(Long-term stays abroad for individuals)

Background

Recognized as a non-profit association and founded in 2009, the GDAB combines substantial experience in intercultural exchange and the strong believe in German-Arab friendship. Mrs. Naimeh Hollmann as head of the organization joins forces with program alumni eager to enable others to gather invaluable experiences through dialog and exchange across cultures.

The GDAB builds on more than 20 years of experience in the conceptualization, organization and implementation of exchange programs between Germany and the Arab world. Past programs have been conducted with the United Arab Emirates, Jordan, Libya, Iraq, Syria, Tunisia, Yemen, and Oman.

Contact and Inquiries

Deutsche Gesellschaft für Deutsch-Arabische Begegnungen e.V. (GDAB)

Society for German-Arab Encounters

P.O. Box 61 05 73, 22425 Hamburg, Germany

Tel: +49 (0) 170 2716981 / Email: info@gdab-online.org

